HIGHEST QUALITY AWARDS

their kind expressions of sympathy, floral tributes and every kindness shown towards him in his sad bereavement in the loss of his wife, Olga E. Savage, who died at Catlettsburg after a long illness on February 5th, and was interred at Fallsburg on Sunday, February 9th.

Shooting Scrape at Soldier.
The Ashland Independent says: A serious shooting scrape occurred at Soldier, Ky., in which a C. & O. employee named Melvin Wilson, was shot through the abdomen by a young boy named Hogg, son of Charles Hogg, who lives at Gates. The affair began through an apparently harmless habit of teasing among the crew of a camp car and resulted in the tragedy stated. Dr. Goodman, of Soldier, brought the wounded man to Ashland by train at noon today and he was taken to the King's Daughters' hospital for treatment. The young boy who did the shooting is said to be about eighteen years of age. He was arrested and placed in the jail at Grayson.

Mrs. John Rice, of Normal, has been very sick for several days. Her brother, Judge B. Riffe, of Louisa, was called here to see her.

PIKEVILLE

Patrick Owens has bought of John Hatcher, Sr., his one-half interest in the Hatcher Hill lying just above town consisting of about one hundred acres. The purchase price was $8,000.

Basket Ball.
Town team and Pikeville College played a game Friday night, which was very interesting and hotly contested. The score was 28 to 20 in favor of the town team.

On Saturday night Paintsville and Pikeville College played. The score was 78 to 6 in favor of Pikeville College.

A reception was given in honor of the Paintsville boys Saturday night by the Pikeville College basketball team at the beautiful home of Miss Thelma Morgan on Scott avenue. Those present were Anna Darby, Mary Elizabeth Michael, Mary Elizabeth Powers, Lora Rogers, Louise Hughes, F. H. Lyons, Miss Wallace, Miss Pratt, Violet Walker, Miss Mary Spillman, Lucille Smythe, Bessie Riddle, Dick Scott, Doris Musick, Charlie King, Jesse Aldridge, Bob Scott, Cecil Green, Paul Riddle, Walter Walters, Thomas Lee, and Mr. Brown, Mr. Wheatley, and Mr. Picklesimer. Games, music and refreshments made up the evening.

From Huntington.
James D. Francis, of Huntington, was the guest of his parents a few days ago. Mr. Francis is a former resident of this city and is a prominent young attorney.

Circuit Court.
Circuit court convened here Monday with Judge Butler presiding and R. M. Fields prosecuting attorney. It is expected that much business will be transacted this term.

Musical.
A recital was given at the College Friday evening by Miss Thompson and Miss Crane, music teachers of Pikeville College, which was well attended and much enjoyed.

PAINTSVILLE

A. T. Huff Passes Away.
A. T. Huff, one of Johnson county's leading citizens, passed away at his home at River Feb. 14. He had been a sufferer for some months with intestinal nephritis and asthma, and then an attack of flu, brought this good man's useful life to a close. He was a member of the United Baptist church for 13 years. He was the father of nine children. The deceased was 57 years old and for years was one of the leading carpenters and steamboat men of the valley.

Go to Italy.
Prof. Tom Atkinson, son of Dr. W. T. Atkinson of this city, is now located at Springfield, Mass., where he is receiving special training before going to Italy where he will do special Y. M. C. A. work. Mrs. Atkinson and children will remain in Paintsville at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Atkinson. Prof. Tom Atkinson is another Big Sandy boy that has made good. His position is not only one of honor but it is a position few men in the country have been able to fill.

Resigns Position.
Verner Stambaugh, who has been sales clerk for the firm of Oppenheimer & Flax for the past seven years, has resigned his position and has accepted a position with the Paintsville Grocery Co. as traveling salesman.

Returns from Fleming.
Fred Atkinson returned last week from his farm down in the Blue Grass. He has his farm rented. It is one of the best farms in that section.

Buys Interest in Mine.
Our fellow townsman, Forest B. Preston, has purchased the interest of John Elkhorn Coal Company and now owns a controlling interest in the mine. He is personally looking after the mine.

With the Cumberland.
Prof. Frank Conley, who has been with the North-East Coal Company for some time, has accepted a position with the Cumberland Coal & Coke Co. at Melvin and is now on the job. Mr. Conley is a good bookkeeper and the company is fortunate in having him. R. M. Brown of this city, is manager of the above company.

Here from Virginia.
Mrs. Flora Dare, of Richmond, Va., was the guest a few days of her mother, Mrs. John Columbus.

Purchases Property.
A. G. T. Dorton, who holds a position with the Paintsville National Bank, has purchased the residence property of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Preston, and will take possession of same March 1. Atty. Ben H. Vaughan will move into the property now occupied by Mr. Dorton.

Returns from France.
Virgil Daniel, son of Dr. and Mrs. G. V. Daniel, of this city, returned this week from France where he has been since last February. Young Daniel was a member of an Engineering corps which kept him at the front most of the time. He was in a number of the big battles and came out of it all without a scratch. He has been honorably discharged and says he is delighted to be in Paintsville again.

W. M. TAYLOR, Sheriff Lawrence County.

Ligon stopped a few days in Portsmouth, Ohio, on her way home to visit friends.

Insurance Agents.
S. D. Salyer, who has been visiting his brother, H. F. Patton, of our city, has returned to Pittsburg, Pa., where we understand he is to resign a responsible position he has held as sales manager for the past fifteen years in order to join his brother in the insurance business at Pittsburg. We predict a brilliant future for these gentlemen.

Health Improves.
Mrs. Alice Morell who has been very sick of Bright's disease at the home of her sister, Mrs. T. O. Burchett on Main street, is reported much improved. Her many friends will be delighted to know she is able to be up some.

Prof. Jilson.
Prof. W. R. Jilson, assistant professor of geology at the University of Kentucky, was appointed deputy commissioner of forestry and geology and State geologist by Commissioner J. E. Barton.

Buys Valuable Farm.
John Sutton, of Hippo, was here last Saturday closing a deal with Judge R. E. Stanley, of Tram, for a 300-acre farm in Boyd county. We understand that this is a very desirable farm, in fact one of the best grazing farms in Boyd county, and brought the good price of $10,000. Mr. Sutton has been trying to buy a farm for several months, and had made several vain attempts to buy in Floyd county. He and his family will remove thence at once.

Visited Lexington.
Mrs. Marie Gormley and little grand daughter, Marie Ives, returned this week from an extended visit to Lexington, where she was visiting her daughter, Mrs. Willard R. Jilson.

Returned from Overseas.
A card from Richmond, Va., brings tidings to his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Goble, that her wounded son George, just back from overseas, has been sent from Hampton Roads to Camp Taylor.

Honorably Discharged.
J. W. Hayes, of Hueysville, who has been with the U. S. forces at Newport, R. I., has been honorably discharged and is at home.

Price Huff Here.
Price Huff, of Louisa, was the guest this week of his sister, Mrs. H. L. Goble. Price is another hero just off the battle fields of France and looks every inch a soldier in his tailored uniform.

Inspector Here from Louisville.
Dr. J. I. Whittenberg, of Louisville, Inspector for the State Board of Health is in the city in the interest of suppressing smallpox in Pike and Floyd counties. Dr. Whittenberg has been in charge of smallpox patient in Jefferson county for more than twelve years.

Reported Married.
News was flashed over the town Saturday afternoon that Miss Edith Fitzpatrick, of this city, and Lieut. Lawrence Amburgey, of Knott county, had married in Ashland, and the independent of the same day printed their names as having obtained a marriage license. Of course, when they arrived on the evening train everybody supposed they were married, but this they strenuously denied affirming that they had obtained the marriage license but decided afterwards not to marry. Both left the first of the week. Miss (?) Edith for Hindman we are informed, and Lieut. Amburgey for his post in Boyd county—Post.

FARMS FOR SALE.
143 acres, 25 acres good bottom land, some good timber and pasture land; wire fencing, good two story building, store house and best country home in State.

Also 100 acres, 20 acres good bottom land, two dwellings good big tobacco barn, some grass and tillable land and timber. Terms easy. Call or write R. BUTLER, Cherokee, Ky.

The thermometer got down to 20 degrees above zero Wednesday and Thursday mornings of this week, but the sunshine warmed the days very materially.

MATTIE.

Sunday School was organized at the Canio church Sunday with D. M. Moore as Supt. Everybody came to Sunday school at 2 o'clock p. m. and let's make it a successful one.

Aunt Ferba Greene died at the home of Lucy Green on Sunday morning last. She was laid to rest in the Cordie burial ground near Cordell Monday.

J. B. Moore was married to Cora Miller, widow of James Miller, of Georges Creek, on Monday, Feb. 17. We wish them a long and happy life.

Alma and Jettie Hayes, Mahala Moore, Gracie Davis and Goldie Childers took dinner with Minnie and Stella Moore Sunday.

Jewel Ball and Bertha Moore spent Saturday night and Sunday with Gladys Childers.

Ruth Justice is spending the week with her sister, Mrs. Mont Wheeler of Elaine.

Mrs. J. D. Ball spent Sunday with Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Hayes of Adams.

CATLETTSBURG

At Eastleigh, England.
Harry Harris, youngest son of Hon. Brig Harris and wife, who is a member of the U. S. naval forces, is at Eastleigh, England, and may remain there for six months longer.

Moves to Ohio.
Jerome Dameron, of Yeaker, Pike county, was here, returning from Jackson county, Ohio, where he has purchased a fine farm and expects to move his family by the fourth of March.

Had Been to Frankfort.
C. C. Bowles and prison commissioner, F. T. Hatcher, were in the city returning to Pikeville, after having transacted business in Frankfort.

Mrs. Reynolds Passes Through.
Mrs. M. C. Reynolds passed through returning to her home at Pikeville, after a visit to her daughter, Mrs. James A. Scott and family at Frankfort.

Were Married.
Miss Elizabeth Hudson, a cousin of Mrs. A. W. Glasgow, who graduated from the high school here about two years ago, was married at the home of Mrs. Glasgow's parents, at Columbus, Adair county, to Mr. Michael Hatcher, who is a brother of Dr. Henry Hatcher, formerly of this city, and whom she met while he was visiting his brother here. Miss Hudson is a most charming and bright young woman and was very popular here. Her husband is a member of a prominent Sandy valley family. They will reside near Cincinnati.

Visiting Friends.
Mrs. H. Leslie Parker went to Frankfort to be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Howerton for a few days and with them attended the reception given by Gov. and Mrs. Stanley. She will visit friends in Lexington ere returning here.

Card of Thanks.
Mr. Joseph Smith desires to thank all relatives, friends, neighbors, Mr. Howe, Eastern Star Lodge, members of M. E. Church and employees of Sanitary Manufacturing Co. of Kenova, for
